These supplement cassettes of Quaker books available from other sources such as Calibre and the talking books available from the RNIB. They are recorded by volunteers around the country, and administration is carried out in Scotland. They are being added to gradually. They are available only to those in the UK or EC who are registered blind or partially sighted, or who can obtain a written confirmation of low vision from a doctor, Ophthalmologist, or Ophthalmic Optician. They cost £1.50 per cassette.
